Travel to and From University of Washington Tacoma Campus

Parking on campus can be a challenge during the academic quarter, as such we’d like to suggest an alternate plan to avoid parking difficulties during your time here at University of Washington, Tacoma. There is plenty of parking at the Tacoma Dome Station, and you can ride the light rail for free from the station, to campus. The rail runs frequently and is a convenient way to avoid the chaos of on-street parking. Exit the light rail at Union Station. Please see the driving directions, and schedule below if you wish to use this method.
