Wastewater: The water from your toilets, sinks, showers, and other inside drains is piped to a wastewater treatment plant where it is treated before discharging into Puget Sound.

Wastewater: Where does the water go?

Points to Remember:

Wastewater and stormwater are separated in Tacoma.